Look forward to super-fresh pasta at Vapiano

The Main Lane.

Albert Lane has come into its own with a string of delectable international dining options

WORDS KERRY HEANEY

Brisbane's newest dining destination
Albert Lane is a dream come true for foodies. It's a one-stop shop for breakfast, lunch or dinner — whether you crave Italian or Asian food, or just a good cuppa and a super sandwich. During the day, the open ambience of the glass atrium laneway space — home to a range of restaurants and cafés — can be accessed from Queen Street Mall, Albert Street or Elizabeth Street. At night, you can gain access from the Mall in Albert Street. Here are some notable establishments to try.

VAPIANO

Vapiano has 65 locations worldwide specialising in old-fashioned Italian recipes prepared using local meat, produce and cheese. The 235-seat Albert Lane restaurant, the first in Australia, has two bars, a 25-year-old olive tree and a herb garden that allows fresh herbs to be served on each table. The menu offers more than 50 combinations of pizzas, pastas and salads to choose from, and not to be missed is their winter treat: Lindt chocolate calzone — pure decadence!
